2) The 2 reasons given by Mr. Hebbikar for his transfer from the Police to Rev. department are

(a) the probability of his short sight being deemed a disqualification for Police work

(b) great delay in his official advancement & confirmation after the completion of his the period of his probation of young officers from the Revenue department should be appointed to fill up the vacancies in the office of Assistant Supdt. of Police, and as there are 3 Probationary Assistant Superintendents of Police above him.

This file was brought up with the Police budget. 16.6.06

4) Neither of the reasons urged seems to be very cogent

5) Short sight is as much a disqualification in the Rev. Dept., as it is apprehended by Mr Hebbikar, to be in the Police.

6) Delay in the promotion and advancement in the Dept. Revenue officers has, of course, no good ground for asking for a change to another Dept. Asst Supdts could if this were allowed, urge a similar claim.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith for the orde of Government an application dated 13th June 1906 from Mr. G. B. Heblikar, Probationary Assistant Superintendent of Police, for a transfer to the Revenue Department, with my remarks thereon.

Inspector General of Police.

To

F. E. C. Carre, Esquire,
Inspector General of Police

I was I beg to place the following few lines before you and hope they will meet with the consideration they may appear to deserve.

My experience of the Police Service for a month and a half inclines me to think that my short sight will prove an inconvenience to me in the discharge of my duties as a Police Officer were I to continue as such. Furthermore I am not certain whether my short sight — slight as it is — will not be held a disqualification in a Service in which keen sight is of so much use.

Secondly were the vacancies in the cadre of assistant superintendents of Police filled up as I hear they are by young officers from ie Revenue Department I shall hav wait for a number of years for nfirmation after the completion f the period of my probation espe ally when it is taken into consi-eration that there are three Probanary Assistant Superintendents f Police senior to me.

These consideration compel e to approach you with a request at you will be pleased to recom-end my transfer as a Probationary ssistant Commissioner to the Revenue epartment in which I have every nfidence I shall in my do justice to ny selection.

I beg to remain
Sir,
Your most obedient servant
G. B. Hebbikar
Probationary Assistan Superintendent of Police.

Bangalore
3rd June 1906

Note I have no objection whatever to Mr Hebbikar being transferred to the Revenue Department, for which I think he is in some ways better fitted than for the Police.
